1. Trainees are required to pursue their research training full time, defined as a minimum of 40 hours per week.

2. Trainees must attend monthly “Emotion Group” meetings and lead 1 meeting discussion on a topic selected collaboratively with the Program Director, Dr. Richard Davidson.

3. Trainees must participate as a discussant in the annual Wisconsin Symposium on Emotion in April and attend preparatory meetings as needed prior to the Symposium.

4. Trainees must attend monthly ethics training seminars.

5. Each Trainee must show continued research progress as evaluated by the Trainee’s program mentor.

6. Trainees must attend the Fall 2021 “Seminar on Emotion” weekly meetings led by Dr. Seth Pollak.

7/23/2021-jfl